Monday, 30 March 2009

TravelManagers are revelling in the sweet smell of success after winning a number of accolades at last week's Australia Travel Awards.

The TravelManagers awards included: Best Travel Consultant Asia - Aileen Collins from the Gold Coast, Queensland; Best Travel Consultant South America - Sue Kuti from Sydney, New South Wales and Highly Commended Europe and the United Kingdom - John Lengacher from Melbourne, Victoria.

The House of Travel Group, which TravelManagers is a part of, also received another award: Highly Commended Adventure - Maria Rainone from Melbourne, Victoria

R-L: Aileen Collins, Joe Araullo, Maria Rainone, Steven Christopher, Sue Kuti, John Lengacher

As a single brand TravelManagers won the most awards across all of the categories it was eligible to enter and with the inclusion of Maria Rainone from Adventure Travel, House of Travel equalled Flight Centre's award total across their different brands.

Chief executive officer, Joe Araullo described the awards ceremony as a night filled with pride.

"I am so proud of all our people and to see so many of them up on stage receiving awards last night was truly a fantastic feeling.

"They all work so hard and these awards are recognition from the industry for that outstanding level of service and commitment to their clients."

"There have been an incredible number of congratulation calls and texts from our people, customers and suppliers, which reinforces that they too know how much these awards mean to the recipients and to TravelManagers as a company."

The Australia Travel Awards were held last night at a formal gala ceremony at WatersEdge in Sydney.
